What People Are Saying About Life By Design Consultants

"I believe that the work Ms. Savage is doing in our communities with regard to helping under served populations is invaluable. She is not only an excellent speaker and trainer but most importantly she is an advocate for those often left without a voice."

M.B., Social Services Coordinator, The Salvation Army

"We recognize you for your outstanding work and dedicated service."

J.W. Case Manager, Keeton Corrections

"I would highly recommend this program to other agencies who are looking for peer based initiatives to help ex-offenders return to the workforce as successful candidates for employment."

S.S., Executive Director, Workforce Escarosa

Sheila Savage

After a life defining experience and great personal loss, Sheila Savage was thrust into her destiny of helping others to reach their full potential. She is a staunch advocate for the rights of ex-offenders and other marginalized populations. As a speaker, trainer, career counselor, and consultant she has been instrumental in helping hundreds of ex-offenders reclaim their lives.
